Thoughts From your RWCL President

I guess the above invitation says it all. This year RWCL was in a holding pattern and we never got the clearance to land on a runway.

Everything runs its course and RWCL is no different. 17 years ago Republican Women ran into trouble and it was resurrected by Sandy Reed. Miracles still happen, but for now your board has served you the best we can and we will make this last gathering a fun, happy event.

Our Dear RWCL member, Nina Rogers, lost her husband Al Rogers last week.

Pictured here is Al, Nina and Senator Wyden. Al was honored July 3, 2013 with these medals and ribbons which he had earned from two wars, World War II and the Korean War. He and Nina were so proud and happy that day.

Al was a navy man serving aboard the USS Lexington 1943-1946. During the Korean War he was stationed at the US Naval Base in Yokosuka, Japan. 1950-1952.

Al Rogers has also been a recipient of the Honor Flight to Washington DC.

Thank you for your service Al and rest in the arms of our Lord.

Memorial services will be this Saturday at 2:00 pm at the First Methodist Church at 1376 Olive Street.
